Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The White Slave Trade: Transactions of the International Congress on the White Slave Trade, Held in London, on the 21st, 22nd and 23rd of June, 1899, at the Invitation of the National Vigilance Association It is upon the papers on the first set of questions, however, that the work of the Congress was mainly centred; and the results have been, (1) the creation of an International Committee to carry out the views Of the Congress in the intervals of its meetings; and (2) the presentation of a modest programme for immediate legal and diplomatic reform by the improvement Of codes and extradition treaties. The minutes and resolutions of the Congress will be found. Below. It will be seen that the Congress. In its project of immediate legal action confines itself to cases in which force, fraud, abuse of authority, or other means of putting improper pressure upon the free will of the victims, are used to bring the girls into the immoral life or to keep them in it. This is because the juridical ideas of the different countries are not at one on the point. By the laws Of France, Belgium, and some other countries, it is not held immoral to entice a woman Of full age to take up a career of vice. England, Germany, Austria, and the Northern countries generally, also the United States, hold a different position, namely, that such doings are wrongful, and should be punished. The Congress took the View that in order to attack the traffic in women it was necessary to have as much common action as possible, and therefore insisted, for the present, upon a minimum proposal on which all...
