READING THE BIBLE WITH RENE GIRARD: CONVERSATIONS WITH STEVEN E. BERRY (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Reading the Bible with Rene Girard When Rene Girard introduced the Bible back into conversation with anthropology in 1978, it was all a bit scandalous. Here, for the first time, Girard weaves his life story and that of the mimetic theory with his own faith reflections and interpretation of Scripture. These interviews are a great introduction for the person new to Girard s writings and will delight Girardian scholars and aficionados alike. One of the many gifts of Rene Girard is his ability to unfold his theory in interviews.many of these dialogues open new perspectives on mimetic theory. Reading the Bible with Rene Girard is a wonderful example of this Wolfgang Palaver, Universitat Innsbruck, Austria, past COVR President Reading the Bible with Rene Girard is an important contribution both to understanding the Bible as a work in progress that continues into our own lives and to introducing the ground-breaking insights of Rene Girard on the human condition and the love of God that breaks through to us in the historical process. James G. Williams, Syracuse University, past COVR President This is a wonderful introduction to Rene Girard s work. Through it one can follow the unfolding of his theory in the context of his life. We are lucky to have this! Jeremiah Alberg, International Christian University, Tokyo, COVR President Very often Rene Girard is at his best when he talks freely in a relaxed interview style. Reading the Bible With Rene Girard provides the master of mimetic theory with one more chance to show this strength. It is indeed hearing the master s voice. Niki Wandinger, University of Innsbruck One comes away from Reading the Bible with Rene Girard...
