Ross, Premier of Ontario, Delivered at Whitby, November, 1899: Government's Policy I have not an easy task before me. Those whom I follow were such men as the Hon. Edward Blake, Sir Oliver Mowat, and the Hon. A. S. Hardy, men of talent, of great experience and of high character, and to follow in their footsteps is no easy task. (Applause.) Allow me first to express my sincere regret on the retirement of my predecessor, the Hon. Mr. Hardy, who for twenty-six years was a conspicuous figure in the Legislative Assembly of his native Province. Mr. Hardy was pre-eminently a Canadian, with a strong strain of United Empire Loyalist blood in his veins - a very good strain, as we all know, by which to make Canadian blood, if possible, more thoroughly British. Mr. Hardy gave the full vigor of his manhood to the service of his country, and as the administrator at different periods of three important portfolios, established beyond cavil his capacity as an administrator and...
